Choo-Choo

July 3, 1958

Diana,

Well how do you feel after the first year? I hope we can have many more and more on top of that. It really doesn't seem like a whole year to me, does it to you?

I guess you are as mad as  $\frac{1}{2}$  at me for not writing this week aren't you? Well I have a good excuse and you had better have some for me when I get there this week-end, and I think you will remember what

Have you ever walked alone down the halls of Hamlet High after the throngs of classes have departed? You should try it sometime. It means quite a lot to a Senior . . . .

A board creaks just a little beneath your feet; funny you never noticed before. You must have been too busy rushing to your next class or eyeing posters or traffic monitors.

Ahh, there's the room where you struggled through your toughest class. It looks odd without the particular teacher's handwriting on the board.

Down below is the Auditorium. Can't you almost hear the Glee Club's voices rising up with the lyrics of "You'll Never Walk alone"?

Hamlet High is full of memories, isn't it? It's a big, wonderful treasure-house—a second home. You'll miss it.

Thank you, Hamlet High, for all those great big times you've given us these past four years. Thank you for teaching us more than the Three R's—for giving us friends we can never lose or ever forget.

We return these to you now, Hamlet High, as we, the Senior Class of 1958, close your doors behind us and look forward . . . .

FOREWORD

With nostalgia as we look backward and with more than a touch of envy as we consider underclassmen, whose years at HHS are not yet finished — we the Class of '58 — present the 1958 edition of the CHOO-CHOO.

Our book is not perfect; we do not pretend that it is. But if it reminds you—as it does us— of long and happy hours spent at HHS—of those after-school dances in the gym, or of the worrying over midterm exams, or even of the notes passing under teachers' noses across silent classrooms—and of countless other “little things” that truly “mean a lot,” our purpose has been fulfilled.

HOMECOMING TONIGHT!!

Student Council—
"On the Ball"

M. J. P.—Editor-to Be

Today is Homecoming Day, the eagerly-awaited day of days which is filled with perhaps more activities than any other single day of the school year.

Yesterday at Activity Period the student body democratically expressed their choices for the 1957 Homecoming Queen by casting secret ballots. The beautiful candidates and their Rer Ram sponsors this year are as follows:
Virginia Lee Shaw by "K" Williams
Betty Hogan by Wayne McGee
Jo Ann Dean by Richard Morgan
Pat Robbins by Jack Moore
Ginger Reid Hamrick by Earl Case
Lynda Lee by Lloyd Maddrey
Jeanne Long by Clyde Norton

The lucky girl will be crowned at Half-time tonight after she and her court are carried around the field in handsome convertibles.

The big secret this year (replacing last year's confusing "L. A. D. O. Y.")

Al Thompson
Student Council members, take a bow; you certainly deserve it! Under the capable direction of Mrs. Winfrer and Miss Winstead, our school's government performs splendidly in such important tasks as keeping hallway traffic under control. Although there have been a few "reckless drivers" in the halls, the members of the Traffic Committee, appointed by President Linda Pegrum, daily direct all traffic during period changes.

Our Council is doing the honors in sponsoring the handsome trophies that will be presented tonight at half-time to our Homecoming Queen and Princess. After every football game, the Council sponsors a dance for the enjoyment of

The artistic talents and sparkling personality of Martha Jo Phifer have won her the high honor of editor of the 1959 "CHOO-CHOO." Chosen by the Junior Class to serve as her capable Business Manager is Johnny Singletary. Although these appointments were published in our first edition of the "Sandspur," we found it impossible to resist running the picture seen on this page of Martha Jo being congratulated by the beaming Ann Cato, this year's Editor.

Martha Jo will have, besides her own innate talent, next year the aid of her mother, Mrs. Grace Phifer of the faculty. Although Martha Jo, no doubt, will need little help she will be assured of Small, fast, and scrappy were the words used to describe the '57 Red Rams. At Camp Crossnore they showed promise, and proved it in their early games. But the superior size and ability of Dunn, Clinton, Wadesboro, and Rockingham took their toll. Result—three wins, six losses, one tie.

HAMLET 19 ----- WHITEVILLE 7

Norton, Garrison, Hodges scored to pace the Rams to victory. Whiteville made their lone touchdown in the third quarter.

HAMLET 13 ----- DUNN 20

The Green Waves scored a quickie in the 1st period to take the lead, which they never lost.

HAMLET 19 ----- TABOR CITY 0

The Rams trotted to an easy win over the helpless boys from "tater" town. The Tabor City offense fizzled before a spirited Ram defense.

HAMLET 0 ----- CLINTON 20

The Red Rams went down under a wall of beefy Dark Horses. The Hamlet offense failed to click throughout the game.

HAMLET 6 ----- WADESBORO 31

Norton snatched the ball from a Tiger and raced 58 yards for the touchdown, but the Wadesboro pass attack was good for three tallies.

HAMLET 7 ----- LAURINBURG 0

Garrison scored early in the first period to set the Rams up for a win. Neither team threatened to score again.

HAMLET 14 ----- LUMBERTON 14

Playing their Homecoming game, the inspired Rams led 14-0 at the half, but the Pirates roared back to tie the game.

HAMLET 6 ----- ROCKINGHAM 41

The Rockets' offense worked like greased lightning on a muddy field. Wooten's pass to Hodges was good for 65 yards and 6 points.

HAMLET 13 ----- SANFORD 20

Stopped cold on the ground, Sanford scored on an 80-yard pass interception, and a ninety-eight-yard kickoff return. Norton made two touchdowns for Hamlet.

HAMLET 7 ----- RAEFORD 19

The Rams scored in the second quarter, and it was a 7-7 game at halftime, but Sanford dominated the second half in a pouring rain.

THE SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Today we, the Class of 1958, fling wide the gate, and as we stand upon the threshold of new and untried adventures, we pause and cast a backward glance upon a most beautiful garden—that of our high school life. It is a garden in which we, like trees, have had not only the sunshine and refreshing showers, but also the storms that have made us stronger. We have stood together as one to face disappointments and discouragements and to live and have fun together.

First Grade:

Edith McGuirt signed her party invitations "Edie" and many guests didn't show up, because they knew no boy named "Edie." Pat Robbins, the class "brain," quickly became the teacher's pet. Johnnie Faye Ballantine announced her "engagement" to Kent Hicks with a dime ring.

Second Grade:

It's hard to believe, but Howard Helton didn't miss a single day of school!

Third Grade:

A fire drill couldn't keep Billy Sutton from braving the flames to save his new green toboggan. Mary Emily Roofe and Ginger Hamrick were frequently kept in after school for noisy flirting. Richard McIver was the expert pot-holder-maker in the class. Sandra Campbell first "threw her weight around" as director of the rhythm band.

Fourth Grade:

James "Smiley" McKeithan started smiling and hasn't stopped yet. Diane Cox was so excited over our first exams that she just stayed home and had to make them up later. Lorene Reaves and Cindy Suggs took revenge on Eddie McInnis by battering his head with a geography book.

Fifth Grade:

Willis Strong copied page 50 of the dictionary so much he knew it better than Webster. Mary Helen Jenkins was a regular Jack-in-the-Box as she dodged flying textbooks tossed by irate Mrs. Spencer. Inquisitive Mary Pat Bradshaw asked the teacher if she had false teeth. Linda Yates' ability to get beyond "sevensies" won her the jackrock championship. When Harry Gibson kept dropping books on the floor the teacher got excited and threw hers at him! Richard Morgan was so deep in thought that he went home at recess and was too embarrassed to return.

Sixth Grade:

Charles Johnson stayed in most of the time for "just being bad." Sandra Liles helped us have frequent class parties by getting cokes at a fat reduction. Wilbur Harte and Billy West were shining examples because they never said a word in class. Peggy Smith embarrassed the boys by knocking more home runs than they did. Jimmy Samuels played tennis all the time to catch the girls' eyes.

Seventh Grade:

Judy Matthews and Mary Alice McEachern were the first to find the way to Rockingham. Betty Hogan had a jewelry box full of Boy Scout rings. Sharon Covington joined us, and 'way back then she seemed quiet and studious. Carolyn Benoist lent her original "love poems" for the boys to drool over. Katie Gardner suffered intense "giggling spells" to shock those who considered her austere. James Peele and Jean Grooms were "rare" because they never had to stay in for talking. Lum and Harrison Kirkley held a monopoly on the "captain" titles of all the athletic events. Brenda Gainey acquired the nickname "Chicken" because of the way she stretched her neck. An experiment in motion (sticking his finger in an electric fan) led Tommy Ludwig to scorn science. L. W. Hudson brought his guitar and played songs and sang for us. Frank Murphy produced, directed, and starred in original melodramas every week.

Eighth Grade:

In the event that the class might get dull, Carol Huguélet carried a picture of Nat "King" Cole in her notebook. While all the seven-footers stood goggle-eyed, "little" Lee McDonald hurled himself across the bamboo for the high jump championship. Ralph Frye was caught chasing a girl with mistletoe in his hand. Bruce Hudson's drawing of the three wise men earned him everyone's envy. Robert Polk had "ink fights" by slinging his fountain pen at everybody. Lee Carter got the shock of his life when he plopped into his desk and a tack punctured his bottom. Jackie Beck was really strutting when hers was voted "Best Figure." Jo Anne Dean let us watch her chew gum her "special" way for hours.

Wayne Mercer gained the title of President of the Garbage Can Club because he was the only one who could crawl completely in it. Barry Ingram did his homework on a typewriter so the teacher wouldn't fuss about his handwriting. Bobbie Gibson was classified a "brain" because she was almost the only one able to pass Mr. Winfree's tests. Faye Wilson pitched a big party after our commencement and we expected to feel mature since we were in "high school." Jervis Hammond and Joyce Duncan had something in common — appendicitis! Ann Cato "went operatic" with her starring role in the commencement. Lloyd Maddrey and "K" Williams vied for the special attentions of a young eighth grade teacher. Sam Ballard was called "the best personality in the class." Virginia Herndon almost had to leave the room for laughing while reading "Legend of Sleepy Hollow." Jimmie Moon's legs stood out in the "chorus line" of the commencement. Beegie Baucom played an April Fool's trick on the teacher had almost got us out a half-hour earlier. Wayne McGee's secret hobby was trading movie star pictures.

Ninth Grade:

Franklin McKay thought his beard felt like sandpaper—and it did! Gilbert Harris found he'd made a fatal error in signing up for Latin. David Holland has the honor of being the only person to have spent three years in Latin—and almost four! Margaret Scholl passed Algebra by calling the roll for Mr. Haynes. Myra Stowe got caught making faces at Mrs. Ballenberger and has been too scared to even smile at her ever since. We wondered if Murrie Lee really was a preacher's son.

Tenth Grade:

Linda Pegram was going to employ her vast experience by leading new members around UNC—and got lost!!! Shirley Ross and Lum Kirkley became engaged. Robert Anderson and his portable radio with its Hillbilly Jamboree were an asset to Activity Period. Glenn Graham and Melvin Smith tried their luck at bus driving. Al Thompson acquired the nickname of "Preacher." Martha Killian found a use for her height—basketball! Barbara Craddock devoted her life to reading "controversial literature." Roy Guinn and Wesley Garner finally joined the gang at the driveway.

Eleventh Grade:

Freddie Lewis began a two-year battle with French. Helen Suggs announced she was our first fellow classman to get married. Marcelle McNair joined us from Hoffman. Diane Stephens frightened other drivers by thundering around in her "Sputnik," as it is currently called. Jimmy Short and the Hamlet Hospital Nurses' Home met each other. Glenda Martin joined the library staff to see if there was anything else to learn. Roberta Utter was the proud Worthy Advisor for the Rainbow Girls. Nan Moriarty's warm disposition and Joe Freeman's wide grin joined us. Earl Case's piano-playing ability was discovered at the Hi-Y-Teen Banquet. At Junior-Senior Glenda Nunnally danced through the deep sea as only a mermaid could. Jack Moore and Mrs. Williamson turned Geometry Class into a debate tournament. Gayle Taylor's driving ability fascinated those of us who though we already knew how to drive.

Twelfth Grade:

Rice Street was put on the map by Pete Williams' frequent parties. Mary Ann Brown made her "dramatic debut." Pat McKee began sporting a big sparkler. Katie Phillips and Valerie Hudson decided 12 years of being quiet was enough. Jean McIntyre was always ahhing over some "cute boy" or other she knew. Gilbert Jordan decided to put the local undertakers out of business. Audrey Merchant "went literary" with her remarkable understanding of "Macbeth." Clyde Norton showed how a real football player works. Margaret Martin showed us how devilish she could be. Bruce Hardin kept smiling and cheering on all the school teams. Carolyn Benoist and Hubert Whitley followed Lum and Shirley's example. Ann Cooke arrived and became co-captain of the Pink Ewes. James Diggs heard the dog barking in "Muttnik"—and his radio had a weak battery, too! Hal Gibbons demanded justice by attempting to haul his entire Physics Class before the Student Council.

We are ready now to open other gates and to live and grow in other gardens. But our roots are back over that wall in the garden called Hamlet High School. It is with deep fondness that we say, "It's a great school, it's a wonderful school, it's OUR SCHOOL."

Deana,

If it's one thing I cannot stand, it's sentimental stuff in annuals. When you're a senior, I shall tell you how cute and sweet you are, etc.

For now, let's only remember the wonderful moments that we've shared: those bridge games and our fabulous scores; our controversial literature; confessions and "other adventures" at your slumber party; the boating excursion. Kid, you and I have done things!

Can you imagine us being Juniors? That really sounds like a far-off dream (probably will be, when I look at my grades). You, Hoda, Liz, and I have had some wonderful times this year as a group. I loved every one of those idiotic escapades. Especially when Liz and I got our licenses and she, her car - - - Pretty soon our worries will be over, seemingly, when all of us have our licenses. No more transportation worries!

If we can live through the Jr.-Sr. (the "waiting" part), we may have a decent chance. But I'll probably collapse of fright. Then, of course, there is that cursed dance - - - Johnny G. will probably come up two seconds before we go on and add a new step!!

Gads, I'm sorry our beach party flopped. We could have had another ball. But we'll appreciate it much more next year. (I sound like "Chaperone")

Hold onto that "Richard Jones" of yours. (That's another type of sentence I hate!) He's such fun and has such an unusual personality (Yes, I'm in love with him!).

Holland, I wish you every happiness possible. I know the rest of our high school years'll be even more fun than this one!

P.S. I started to put
"P.S. - write soon!"

Love,
Gordon

Diana, I certainly hate to leave all of you next year. You'll have to take care of
D. D. D. for me.

Best of luck
always to a real sweet girl.

A friend,
Linger

Diana,
I have enjoyed knowing you, in the past and this year in study hall.
Remember the fun we had at your house year before
last, after the Jr.-Sr.?
Best of luck to a real sweet girl.
Your friend,
Myra Stowe

Diana,

Well, I hope you can read my "chicken-scratch".
You and Gordon have been trying very hard to improve me, but it is just impossible. Do you ever think I will learn cars, songs, and most of all to "control my emotions"? I am just about hopeless.

Now when you write in someone's annual you are supposed to tell "them" (improper English). Just a great time you have had knowing them. So I think I shall start a long time ago. Remember the continuous fights between you, Sarah, and I.
Most of the time you and "Sig" sided against me.
Most of our past is made up parties, excursions
(remember them), and fights, fights, fights!!!

Now for the present. How about our crazy notion that we wanted to get into Rainbow.
The time we tried out for cheerleader and the laughing spells that came over us. Liz got her and we began riding fiens. Our coach really floored; didn't it? Well I guess
I should be glad to see you at school.

Sine, you just don't know how lucky you are to have a friend like Jimmy! Honestly, you are so lucky.

Maybe in the future we will have better luck with our parties and etc.

(cont 5 pages back)

Diana,

As usual I'm just at a loss of words. — I just don't know where to begin. We've just had some of the greatest times together.

I agree that we have had our "headaches" with those "Forgettable Vamps." Maybe some day we'll look back on all of it and laugh!

We've gotten our gr. down with now. Luckily everything went off O.K.

I'm really lookin' forward to the summer months. I hope we get to have a house party at O.D. and it'll be just as great a time as it was last year. — Here's wishing a wonderful time the very best of everyone. Always "D"

Diana,

Diana,

These past 2 years in H.H.S. have really been fun. Don't forget Home Ec. II and the meals we "threw together".

In the "grand tradition of Hollands," you have a very good personality - every bit as crazy as David! We'll miss you next year; take care of our school for us!

Best of luck to a very sweet girl.

Best of luck always to a very, VERY special girl!

A friend,
Peggy Clark

 Just leave it to me to do it. I hope we meet you will have more classes together. Do you think we'll ever get out of Algebra?? I hope we'll ever get out to a real swell girl. Best of luck

As always,

 Best of Luck
 J. Rache

Diana,
 and I a very sweet,
 I wish the best of luck and happiness in the coming years.
 Billy Howe

Diana,

Well, I guess there just are <sup>not</sup> words enough to tell you how much I have enjoyed your friendship. You have really been a wonderful girl, that I will always be proud to call one of my very closest friends.

It just doesn't seem like I will be leaving 'ol' H. H. S. this year, I will really miss you at school (or being there myself.)

Remember all those good times we had together: Crazy Rock 'N' Roll Parties out at Allyn's house, water skiing, those wild Court. rides + most of all that House Party you had at Ocean Drive Beach. I don't believe I have ever had so much fun before.

Diana, there is no need for our friendship to lose face when I leave. Humber to go to school and be a designer. Please, when you + Jimmy get married you + he can and see me in my little, old, broken down designers shop (it would cheer me up a little.) Well, lets hope I won't be quite that bad off.

Lets always be friends even if we can't see each other very much.

I sincerely hope that you will have all the happiness + success
